The Vision for Life-Study Revised

Life-Study of the Book of Revelation

Theme: The Revelation of Jesus Christ

1. Theme

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Join us for an insightful and practical study of the Book of Revelation. Together, we will explore its core message: Christ and Christ alone. We will further consider our victory, hope, the call to faithful living and service in Christ, the holy city, and the New Jerusalem.

Topics include:

- The four pillars of God's Economy being the revelation of Christ, His Cross, His Ekklesia and the Kingdom.
- The messages to the seven churches
- The throne of God and the Lamb
- Biblical symbols and prophecy
- Spiritual warfare and Christian perseverance
- The Bride and the New Jerusalem
- The New Heaven and the New Earth
- The place of Sonship

All believers and interested friends are welcome.

2. Objectives

By the end of the study, participants should be able to:

- Understand and see the eternal purpose of God in the Book of Revelation.
- See the journey and the process of our transformation in Christ.
- Understand the historical context and identify its major sections, symbols, and themes.
- Understand the messages to the seven churches.
- Discuss and see the role of consecration, worship, judgment, spiritual warfare, and Christ’s return.
- Apply the book’s lessons to daily Christian life.
- Respond to difficult passages with humility, honesty, and balanced biblical wisdom.

3. Purpose

The purpose of this life-study is to:

- Help believers see the centrality of Christ in the eternal purpose of God.
- Understand the role and place of the Ecclesia and biblical discipleship.
- Strengthen faith in Jesus Christ.
- Encourage consecrated and faithful Christian living.
- Spark hope alive in the finished work of Christ.
- Equip believers to study Scripture prayerfully and responsibly.
- Emphasize hope, perseverance, worship, and the return of Christ.
